To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and at that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at errand's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

THE CHECK LIST.—There were 1,064 names of voters on the St. Albans check list yesterday. No one can vote here on Tuesday whose name is not on the list for that day, we believe.

LOVERS—of fruit—will find a nice lot of ripe pears, apples, and soon, we doubt not, they may find peaches, at Samson Co.'s. Every family should use plenty of ripe fruit, in its season, to promote health. Nature supplies it for our use, and we are unwise if we neglect to profit by her bounty. Give the children plenty of ripe fruit, and you may expect escape thereby the need of a physician sometimes. Fruit is a physician—man is his apothecary.

DROWNED.—We are informed that a son of Hon. Alfred Keith, of Shelburne, died about nine years ago, was drowned in the Shelburne Creek on Thursday. With another boy about his own age he was in a boat, which upset, and before assistance could be rendered young Keith was drowned. The other boy succeeded in reaching the shore.

THE RICHMOND GRANT CLUB.—Hon. J. C. Smith will address the Richmond Grant Club on Saturday, the 20th inst. The fear that Grant himself could not be the chance to address ours. A certain juvenile story will apply to it,—"It tied a bonnet."

FOSSIL REMAINS.—Mr. H. N. Currie, while digging for water on Tuesday and Wednesday last, in a low, swampy piece of ground on his farm in North Danbridge, P. Q., found quite a number of bones which by their large size indicate that they once belonged to some monster of the animal kingdom much larger than any now known to exist on the American Continent.

The bones found consist of seven teeth, two ribs, one shoulder blade, two pieces of the back bone, and the lower one of one fore leg. They were found close together, and not far below the surface of the ground.

One of the teeth weighed three and one half ounces. A large horse tooth, weighed at the same time, weighed but one ounce. The top of the bone of the fore leg was found to be some larger than could be covered by the extended hand. Mr. Currie proposes to give a thorough examination to the ground in the vicinity with the hope of finding the remaining portions of the skeleton. May be successful.

TO THE POLLS!!

ELECTION TUESDAY SEPT. 1.

Look well to your ballots.
Soldiers, remember Belle Island and Andersonville!
Remember the Slaveholders' war of the Rebellion.

Citizens, remember your desolate firesides and the burden of taxes that has been saddled upon you by rebellion. The Country is saved,—preserve it.

Look out for split tickets.
Vote the straight ticket.
Vote the State ticket.
Vote the Congressional ticket.
Vote the County ticket.
Don't scratch.
Vote for town Representative.
Vote the Republican ticket.

Look out for split tickets! the elections will be flooded with them.

Pay no attention to the jugglers' handbills and posters. Don't be fooled.

Pay attention to the great issues of the day.
Don't straggle.

Look out for split tickets! vote right, and a grateful people will send back, from every State in the Union, thanks to Vermont.

FIRE IN HIGHGATE.—The fires which have been running in the woods in the town of Highgate have approached so near that place to-day as to cause much alarm, and we understand that all inhabitants are out, fighting the fire. "Behold what a great matter a little fire kindleth." It is the large fire that is feared, and not the kindling spark. But unrebuked the fire becomes unmanageable. Let Republicans apply the lesson of the fire to the present condition in their party in this County.

NEWPORT.—A political discussion upon the issues of the hour, was held at Newport, Vt., Thursday, Aug. 27, between Hon. George F. Edmunds, of Burlington, and Hon. D. E. Rand of New Hampshire.

CHAMPLAIN HOUSE, HIGHGATE, VT., Aug. 27, 1868.
Messrs. Editors:

Will you please inform me, through the columns of your paper, why some of your hotel-keepers tell strangers, on their arrival there, that they know of no such place as Highgate, or Champlain Spring? Some of my boarders have been told that; and some that the spring had dried up; some that there was no conveyance to Highgate but an old mud-wagon; and one was told that there was no post-office here, &c., &c.

Yours truly,
JED. P. CLARKE.

We cannot, of course, furnish the information asked for in the above note. It requires a positive assertion to convince us that any hotel-keeper in St. Albans would make the statement attributed to "some" of them.—Eds.

Some one of the employees on the Rutland and Burlington railroad, is something of a wag. On his arrival here through Chester on the day of the "great gathering" of the Democracy there, he was inquired of as to the meeting at Chester, and replied that it was "a tremendous meeting, and before they got through Seymour was elected by four majority."—Bellevue Falls Times.

During the war, we had two guns here which were fired on occasions of victories by the Union army. The last occasion they were fired was the victory at Gettysburg and Vicksburg. The music they made was so annoying to somebody that one of them was stolen, and its place of deposit unknown till Monday last, when it was found by some workmen who dug it out of the mud in the canal.—Bellevue Falls Times.

Caucus.

The Democrats and Conservatives in the town of St. Albans are requested to meet in town caucus at the Court House in St. Albans, at 7 o'clock, P. M., tomorrow (Saturday), to nominate a candidate for Town Representative, and to transact such other business as may be necessary.

Per Order of Town COMMITTEE.
St. Albans, Aug. 28, 1868.

"The blushing beauties of a modest maid" are doubly enhanced by the "luxuriant wealth" of hair which as surely follows the use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" as that light follows darkness.—St. Louis Times.

If every family in this town knew the value of Renne's Magic Oil, and would keep a bottle of it on hand to use in case of accident, we should be a happier if not a handsomer people. Try this Oil.

CANCER, SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER Complaint, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, &c. cured. A book of 100 pages, sent free to any address. Address E. GIBBES, M. D., 10 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle), and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

Taking Medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of iron in the blood, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this deficiency and builds up an iron constitution.

The excellent American Organ, manufactured by S. D. & H. W. Smith Boston, used at the late convention, deserves an especial notice, a large double banked instrument of 14 stops, whose heavy sub-bass notes were distinctly heard above the whole chorus of 350 voices, while in accompanying the recitatives in the oratorios, the effect of the soft stops and tremolo were very striking. We notice that the use of these beautiful instruments is beginning to be appreciated by societies in the larger cities.—Burlington Free Press.

Seventh Visit!

IMMENSE SUCCESS!!!

A. D. CRABTREE, M. D.
THE SANATORIAN,

WILL make his Seventh visit to St. Albans, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY, Sept. 9, 10 and 11. Richmond, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 1 & 2. West Berkshire, Thursday, Sept. 3. Enosburgh Falls, Friday and Saturday 4 & 5. (See) Shelburne, Monday and Tuesday Sept. 7 & 8. Bakersfield, Saturday 12. Cambridgeboro, 14 & 15. Johnson, 15. Hyde Park, 17. The Doctor's last visit here, was marked by a greater number of patients than formerly. All the papers agree that he is the most successful, and the only traveling doctor that can month after month and year after year, visit the same places. New cures are continually done by his treatment, which are useless to publish as he is so well known. The Mayor of Vergennes certifies that Dr. Crabtree cured him last Spring of a very bad cough, Bronchial Catarrh. A lady, (reference given to ladies,) of prolapsus &c
